

ME TOO!

A Mom-to-Mom Support Group

for moms of more than one child

Do you have more than one child and a need to connect with other moms who can relate? Are you struggling with a perinatal mood disorder, a lack of support, or simply finding time for self-care?

Come join Me Too! – a mom-to-mom, volunteer-run support group – to connect with other moms, share the struggles of parenting more than one child, and find some solace in knowing you're not alone.

Me Too! is facilitated by 3 moms – Amalia, Candice, and Elisabeth. We have a total of 7 kids between us and we've all experienced perinatal mood disorder – we get it! We offer a safe, friendly, judgment-free space where moms can share and connect.

When: Wednesdays from 12:30-1:30pm

Where: First Connections, 179 Great Road, Unit 104A, Acton MA

Contact us at metoomoms@gmail.com or 978-429-8284, ext. 202 with questions or to RSVP.
Kids are welcome, and child care is available with advance notice.

While Me Too! strives to meet the needs of moms with more than one child, we also welcome moms of one. If you're a mom who wants to connect with other moms, please feel free to join us!
